Introduction

Organisations must continuously strive for peak performance to maintain a competitive edge. However, achieving organisational excellence is no easy feat. It requires teams to possess a unique blend of critical capabilities, including effective problem-solving, clear communication, and the ability to drive growth amidst complexity.

At Apex Hatchers, we understand the challenges organisations face in developing these essential skills within their teams. That's why we offer customised workshops tailored to each organisation's specific goals, equipping teams with the tools and mindsets necessary for success.

Our Workshops

Our interactive workshops are carefully designed to cultivate the critical capabilities required for organisational excellence, including:

Creative Thinking Workshops

Promote innovation through curiosity, critical thinking, lateral problem-solving approaches, and intuitive thinking, empowering teams to generate fresh ideas and solutions.

Mental Toughness and Resilience Training

Strengthen perseverance, agility, and hyperfocus, enabling teams to adapt to changing circumstances and overcome obstacles with determination through mental, physical and emotional toughness.

Communication Workshops

Build clarity, empathy, and influence, fostering effective communication through active listening, assertiveness, and non-verbal communication for collaboration within teams and with clients or stakeholders.

Sales Enablement

Provide frameworks to connect deeply with customers and articulate value, enhancing the team's ability to drive revenue growth and customer satisfaction.

The Process

Our workshops are intricately crafted through a well-structured process to ensure a transformative experience tailored to each organisation or team's unique needs and goals:

Step 1: Consultation

- Meet with client to understand goals, challenges, and needs
- Identify desired capabilities to build through workshops

Step 2: Tailor-made Proposal

- Develop a tentative workshop or training plan mapped to objectives
- Outline suggested topics, formats, and timelines for the workshops or trainings

Step 3: Initial Interaction

- First hands-on workshop or training for assessment
- Understand team dynamics through exercises or discussions
- Validate and refine workshop or training plan
- Conduct tailor-made assessments and share reports

Step 4: Next Steps

- Collaborate to finalise topics, focus, and schedule
- Structure short-term or long-term engagement
- Schedule cadence for learning reinforcement

Step 5: Follow Up/Feedback

- Follow up with participants and HR/LD team
- Reinforce learning, gather feedback
- Share tools/resources for lasting behaviour change
